CANADIAN AIRPORTS COUNCIL
CONSEIL DES AÉROPORTS DU CANADA

In times of uncertainty, Canada's airport workers have always risen to the challenge. Thank you for working day and night to bring Canadians home safely, and to ensure our communities continue receiving the essential supplies and services they rely on.

Canada's Airports are proud to do our part, and we will continue to work closely with government, community officials, and our industry partners for the safety and well-being of all Canadians. Learn more at canadasairports.ca.
